Cell & Gene Collaborative: The Ties That Bind: Engineering A CGT Manufacturing-Centric Culture

November 29, 2021

When I met Tenaya Therapeutics CEO, Faraz Ali, we were just starting to emerge from the worst part of the spring 2021 pandemic, by which point navigating the workday from family-filled houses was finally second nature to many of us. This was clearly the case for Ali who carried out our early morning interview in the front seat of his car so as not to wake up his daughters.
